

NOW HIRING - POLICE OFFICERS

Archdale Police Department is now accepting applications for the position of Police Officer I.

The pay range for Police Officer I is $35,017-$52,526 depending on education and/or experience.

Below you will find the qualification requirements and benefits offered by the City of Archdale Police Department.

Qualifications

- Must be a citizen of the United States.
- Must be at least 21 years of age.
- Must be of good character, as determined by a thorough background investigation.
- Must not have committed, or been convicted of, a felony offense.
- Must possess a valid driver's license and have a good driving record.
- Must pass a physical examination and drug screening.
- Must be suitable for law enforcement as determined by a psychological evaluation.
- Vision must be correctable to 20/20.
- Must be a high school graduate or have attained a GED certificate.
- College preferred, but not required.
- Educational background in law enforcement and/or law enforcement experience preferred.
- Successful completion of Basic Law Enforcement Training and state exam.

Benefits

Working as a Police Officer for the City of Archdale guarantees a wide variety of benefits. Insurance coverage, generous vacation and holiday leave, and recognition and wellness programs are examples.

Benefits include: Medical and dental insurance, tuition assistance, contributory retirement, 401-k supplemental retirement, paid leave time for vacation, holiday, civil, military and sick leave.

For more information, please visit our website www.archdale-nc.gov. The Archdale Police Department offers the challenge and opportunity of providing public service to a rapidly growing community. For those seeking a career in law enforcement, the Department provides the challenge of a demanding profession, an opportunity for career advancement, and a commitment to excellence, along with a comprehensive benefits package.